1. Circle all the objects that are lines.

2. How many points are shown in the picture?

3. Sketch a picture where the location of the sun is a point and there are at least six rays that represent sunlight coming out from the sun.

4. Circle all the pairs of parallel lines.

5. The figure below has 12 pairs of sides that intersect at points. How many of these pairs are perpendicular?