1. There are 32 students in Levi’s class at school. Round the number of students in the class to the nearest ten.

2. Olivia is cooking dinner for her family. It takes her 35 minutes to prepare the meal. Round the number of minutes to prepare the meal to the nearest ten.

3. It is a 356-kilometer drive from Jefferson’s house to the beach. Round the length of the drive to the nearest ten.

4. There are 648 students in Lori’s school. Round the number of students to the nearest hundred.

5. There were 753 people who attended a concert by the school band. Round the number of people who attended to the nearest hundred.

6. A hockey rink holds 386 spectators. Round the number of spectators to the nearest ten.